Art Meets Sustainability Across Europe!

Cultural route of the Council of Europe
Itinéraire culturel du Conseil de l'Europe

We're thrilled to announce that the European Route of Ceramics is a proud partner of the OTRart project – Overview Through Rubbish & Art – funded by the EU's Creative Europe programme!

The Partners

Avignon University

Our university's centuries-old history has led to active, recognized research and solid, appropriate training, with the aim of forging talent, supporting graduates and launching nuggets.

Its two campuses, Hannah Arendt and Jean-Henri Fabre, are proving that the Agrosciences, Environment and Health and Culture, Heritage and Digital Societies institutes are the cornerstones of a credible future for Provence, for its young people and for living together.

Déchets d'Arts

Is an ancient association founded in January 2006 from an ecological and artistic approach to waste.

"Émerveiller pour éveiller"
(Wonder to awaken)

The aim of our work is to raise public awareness of environmental issues through artistic activities.

European Route of Ceramics

Is a Cultural Route of the Council of Europe, certified since 2012, promoting the valorisation of both the tangible and intangible European cultural heritage related to ceramics and its tradition.

We work for the development of a sustainable and competitive tourism offer based both on artistic productions and cultural collections and on the entire cultural and social growth that the destinations involved have experienced over the years.

Klub članova Selo

Founded in 1997, is focused on promoting rural tourism and sustainable development. We collaborate closely with family farms and rural tourism entrepreneurs, connecting them with various sectors such as agriculture, culture, and education.

Our work emphasizes the empowerment of women through the European Rural Women initiative, as well as youth in rural areas.

Through these efforts, we continue to foster growth and promote the rich heritage of rural communities.

Mancomunitat Taula del Senia

Has been working for 20 years on the conservation and revaluation of Millennial trees

Is a public entity made up of 27 municipalities from 3 regions (Valencia, Catalonia and Aragon). It has a surface area of 207,000 ha and 115,000 inhabitants.

We all share a common history, language, culture and customs as well as the fact that we have a large number of millennial olive trees.

Routes of Olive Tree

Is a cultural organization established in 1998, dedicated to promoting the culture of the olive tree as a shared cultural heritage of the Mediterranean peoples.

We promote sustainable cultural tourism, protect and showcase intangible cultural heritage, strengthen intercultural cooperation, promote the Mediterranean diet and the environmental education and awareness

Unfinished ArtSpace

Is dedicated to providing a supportive and creative environment where artists can take risks and develop their ideas alongside supportive communities and collaborators.

Unfinished Art Space believes that experimental and contemporary art should be an integral part of society, enriching lives, contributing to debate and empowering social change.
